The Greater Boston area is renowned for its outstanding hospitals and medical schools. Less well known are the many complementary and alternative caregivers in this area. In Where To Go? - Boston, Ralph Moss interviews some of the foremost CAM caregivers in the Greater Boston area and offers a detailed analysis of the treatments they provide and the rationales behind those treatments. For those seeking CAM care in Greater Boston, this 30-page report is a valuable guide. For more information or to order this report, please click here.
